2-Mile Limit Effective Coming School Year

Strict enforcement of the two-mile limit rule for school bus transportation goes into effect at the start of the new term, School Board members ruled Wednesday.

"This board has to pay the full cost of transporting children within the two-mile limit, and we have neither the money nor equipment," Ralph Kettler, School Board chairman, said.

Kettler estimated school buses carried 1,800 children within the two-mile limit last year, and would be confronted by 2,300 similar passengers in the 1960-61 school year.

The state subsidizes school bus transportation only for those pupils living beyond the two-mile limit.

The board's ruling boils down to this:

If a child lives further than two miles from his school, he will be permitted to use school buses.

If he lives closer than the two-mile radius, he will have to walk or find a means of travel other than school system buses.

Board members considered implementing the mileage limit last year, but in the face of public opposition decided to give a year's grace period.

Nation's Officials To Meet In Miami

A VIP-studded program, including possible appearances by both presidential nominees, will highlight the Silver Anniversary Conference of the National Association of County Officials Aug. 14-17 at the Fontainebleau Hotel.

Paul Rardin, chairman of the Palm Beach County Commission, will be in attendance at the meeting. He is a member of the Roads and Highways Commission of the National Association and is now serving his third consecutive year in that capacity.

"We have invited both Kennedy and Nixon," says Philip Warren, Jr., assistant director for publications of the NACO, of Washington, D. C., "and the outlook regarding their attendance is favorable just now."

During the three-day meeting, the 2,500 delegates and guests will hear from more than 200 speakers, panelists and technical experts.

Members of NACO comprise elected and appointive policy-making, county government leaders from all parts of the country.

One of the lead-off speakers is Gov. LeRoy Collins, recent chairman of the Democratic National Convention.

Other nationally-known figures to appear include Raymond G. Saulnier, chairman of President Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisors; Austin Kiplinger, publisher of "The Kiplinger Letter" and "Changing Times" magazine; (continued on page 8)

Chamber Plans For New Officers

Preparations for the annual election of directors of the Pahokee Chamber of Commerce were made at the August meeting of the board of directors in the Civic Building.

Mrs. Doris Sasser, president, named C. Leland Shirley, Jr., chairman of a nominating committee, to work with Oscar Dobrow and Luther York, members, in the selection of eight nominees, four of whom will be elected, as new directors. Mail ballots will be used in the election, the ballots to be sent to members later this month.

It was voted to sponsor again next year a Fourth of July celebration at Pahokee Harbor. Luther York was asked to make tentative plans for a program for this event for the board.

C. E. (Bill) Williams was appointed chairman in charge of arrangements for the chamber's annual membership dinner to be held in October.

In reply to the chamber's request to the City of Pahokee that needed improvements at the waterfront be made while a dredge was on location in Lake Okechobee for the waterworks intake extension, the City Council a letter to the board said such improvements could not be made at the present time, first, because a permit for the work had to be obtained from the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers and, second, funds for the proposed improvement were not set up in the current budget.

Last Thursday's Richlands, Inc., land sale held in the Glades Office building by members of the Internal Improvement Board saw only a handful of the acreage sold. Records show that a little more than 1,000 acres were sold at auction out of the total of nearly 3,000 acres offered.

Several individuals submitted bids on individual parcels totaling 1,100 acres. The bids ranged from $453 to $507 an acre and totaled $516,800.

Rumor had it that many, many small farmers wanted to bid on the acreage in small plots and this was one of the factors that caused the state agency to cut up the acreage into small offerings from 40 acres up. But, when the bids were opened there weren't many small farmers in the race. All of the bids were made by big operators. The minimum price was $453 per acre as set by the appraisal.

On Tuesday of this week the U. S. Sugar Corp., which already has substantial holdings in this area, offered to buy the entire tract for $453 an acre, or more than one million dollars.

By a vote of two for and three against, Cabinet Trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund rejected the individual offers to purchase.

The trustees then decided to re-advertise the land for taking of bids next Tuesday on leasing the land for 10 or 15 year periods. They suggested a minimum price of $20 an acre.

Richlands, Inc., a big farming concern whose long term lease expired last June, offered to make a new lease for $20 an acre.

Recreation Plan Told By FCD Group

A plan to permit the development of recreational areas bordering canal banks and water conservation areas, is expected to come before the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District's Governing Board this week.

FCD Executive Director, G. E. Dail, Jr., said the item had been tentatively placed on the Board's agenda for the Friday, August 5th, meeting at 9:00 a. m. at the FCD headquarters in West Palm Beach.

The plan has been prepared at the request of the FCD by the Florida Development Commission. Dail said the plan will outline methods for the developing high quality sites to give the public access to wildlife areas.

Apart from making the sites available, the FCD's role would probably be one of coordination between various federal, State and local government agencies to develop picnic areas, boat ramps, etc., it was explained.

Another highlight of the meeting will be the formal final acceptance (continued on page 8)

Roberta Hatton Is Wed To F. P. Salvatore

St. Mary's Catholic Church in Pahokee was the setting Saturday, July 30, at 10 a. m. for the wedding of Miss Roberta Virginia Hatton and Frank Paul Salvatore, with Father Sernaldo Ibarra officiating as the couple stood before an altar decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums against a background of palms.

Miss Alice Elaine Hurt, organist, presented the program of nuptial music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Robert C. Hatton, of Pahokee. She wore a waltz-length gown of nylon and lace, fashioned princess style and trimmed with sequins. The fitted bodice with square neckline and cap sleeves was fastened down the back with tiny matching buttons. The elbow-length veil of French illusion was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. Her only ornament was a gold cross and chain, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white prayer book centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Phelix Prince, sister of the bridegroom, as matron of honor wore Nile green silk organza trimmed with sequins with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

A reception, attended by members of the two families and close friends, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hatton on East Main St. The bride's table laid with Italian cutwork cloth over pink linen, was decorated with pink carnations and fern which encircled the 3-tiered wedding cake and crystal punch bowl. Mrs. Hatton received the guests in a blue tulle and lace gown with crystal accessories and ab lue chrysanthemum corsage. Mrs. Teresa Salvatore, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue eyelet batiste dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage. Assisting the hosts were Mrs. Don Zaccagnino, cousin of the bride, Miss Carol Mae Hatton, sister of the bride, Miss Jane Ridder and Miss Ruth Hammond.

Following a wedding trip to New York City and the New England States, Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore will reside in Fort Pierce where he is in business and she is laboratory technician at the Fort Pierce Hospital.

James Levins is a patient at St. Mary's Hospital, West Palm Beach, this week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Levins.

Florida Is Not Mecca For Old Folks

GAINESVILLE — Florida's status as the Mecca for older people is a popular view based on exaggeration, reports a University of Florida economist.

Dr. John N. Webb, in the July "Economic Leaflet," credits Florida's advance to one of the "big" population states in the last decade as being primarily due to the influx of people under 65. He points out that Florida has gained a substantial increase in the labor force group 18 to 44 years of age, while most other states in the nation showed a deficit in this age group.

Florida is first in the nation proportionately in population growth due to net migration, but the popular belief that retirees are primarily responsible for this growth is challenged by Dr. Webb. Comparing age compositions of state populations with figures taken from the March, 1960, "Current Population Report," and Census Bureau estimates, he shows that while Florida's elderly population doubled between 1950 and 1958, the total population of the state doubled as well. Dr. Webb says this clearly indicates that the majority of Florida's increase in population is coming from groups under 65.

In 1950, Florida had 235,000 persons aged 65 or older, only 8.6 percent of her total population. This was the same percentage held by California, Dr. Webb says.

He points out that the national percentage of elderly people was only 8.1 in 1950. Eight years later, the Census Bureau estimates showed at least two other states with high percentages of elderly residents than Florida, in spite of an increase of 1.6 percentage points in Florida's elderly population.

These facts, conclude Dr. Webb, do not justify the common opinion that Florida is a "retirement" state.

In addition to his study of age composition, Dr. Webb's article shows that Florida's population gains in the 1950's stand ahead of those made by such industrial states as Ohio, New York, Michigan, and Illinois. Brevard County (Cape Canaveral), alone, he points out, gained 60,000 persons from new migration, the same number gained from out of state in the whole state of New York in the same period. This shows why Florida ranks first in the nation in gains from interstate migration, says Dr. Webb.

Florida's industrial rank, however, is far down the list from her population rank, says Dr. Webb. The 1958 Census of Manufactures lists Florida twenty-third in terms of employment in industry.

He says Florida's geography and resource endowments are roadblocks to rapid industrialization. The expected urbanization increase from 65 percent in 1950, to 75 percent in 1960, reflects strong growth in localized industry, Webb says.

The abundance of workers who have moved to Florida because of its resources for good living should insure that future expansion of industry, trade, and service activities will not suffer from shortages of workers, says the report.

The Economic Leaflet is published monthly by the Bureau of Business and Economic Research at the University. It is available to Florida residents free upon request.

Here's what the new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest rate on U.S. Savings Bonds means to you:

$3 = $4 fourteen months faster than before

The Bonds you own are better than ever, too

The new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ rate means your savings grow faster than before with U.S. Savings Bonds. \$3 becomes \$4, or \$3,000 becomes \$4,000 in just seven years, nine months. This applies to all Series E Bonds bought since June 1, 1959.

Then, all older Bonds, both Series E and H, pay more now—an extra $\frac{1}{4}\%$ from June 1 on, when held to maturity.

And, all Series E Bonds carry a new 10-year extension privilege. This means your Bonds will keep earning liberal interest automatically after maturity.

These three new cash benefits make today's U.S. Savings Bonds the finest in history. They make the ones you own now better, too.

More advantages of U.S. Savings Bonds

You can save automatically. Just tell your company how much to deduct every payday for Bonds, and your Bonds will be delivered to you. This way you can't forget to save. And, remember, the money you don't touch can't slip through your fingers.

You can get your money, with interest, when you need it. Your Bonds are a ready reserve to use anytime you wish. But, it pays well to hold them.

Your savings can't be lost or stolen. The U.S. Government guarantees to replace your Bonds, free, if anything ever happens to them.

You save more than money. The Bonds you buy help keep the peace because peace costs money. Money for better education, new scientific research, greater military strength. And the money you save helps strengthen our nation's economy which depends on the financial strength of individuals to keep it sound.

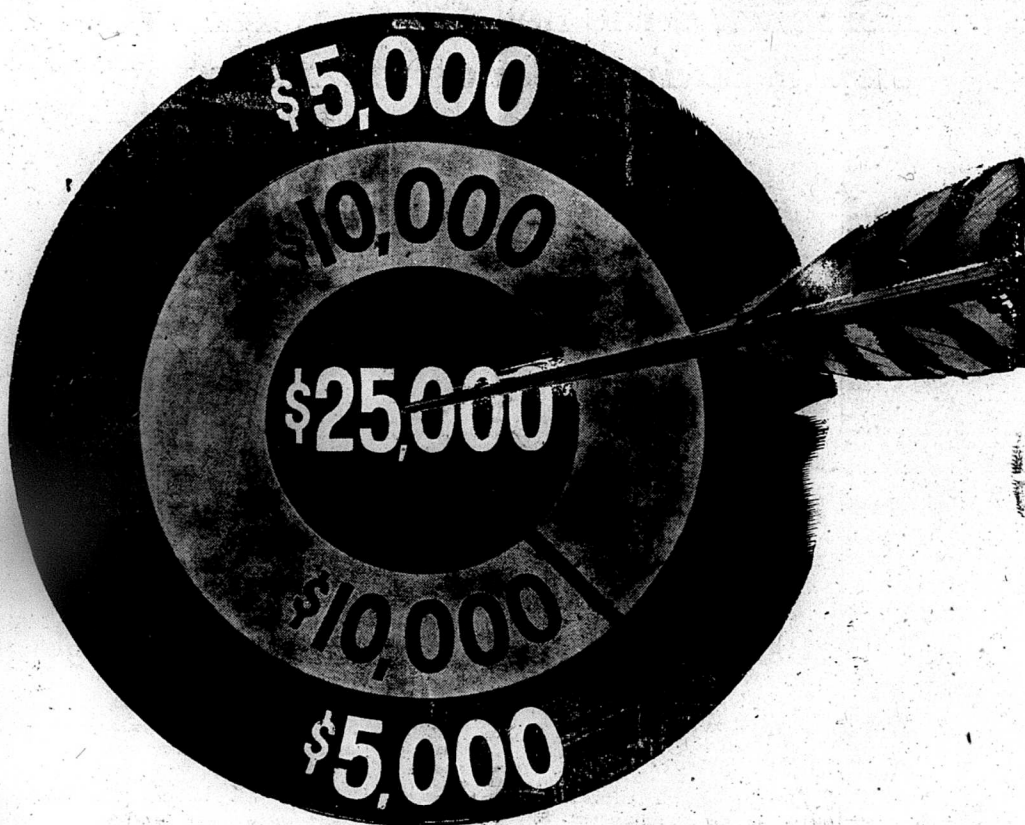

Start saving with U.S. Savings Bonds today. You'll save more than money.

Pick your savings target and shoot straight for it!

A home... financial security... a business of your own. Important savings targets like these cost money—a substantial sum—and more than most of us have. But here's a sure way for you to score a bull's-eye and walk off with the big prize you want.

The secret of saving is system. And the simplest, most automatic saving system ever devised is the Payroll Savings Plan. Best of all, you do more than save through Payroll Savings. You invest your money, too, and make it grow. Here's how it works:

Tell your company pay office how much you want to save each week. Then each pay period that amount will be put aside for you before you have a chance to spend it. Your money will go automatically into U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

Because Savings Bonds earn good interest—3% compounded semiannually when held to maturity (9 years and 8 months)—they're soon worth much more than you've invested in them. And your Bonds will continue to pay this same good interest as long as 19 years and 8 months. That means a return of up to 80% more than you originally paid.

And remember this. There's no guesswork or chance about the Payroll Savings Plan. It's absolutely safe and sure. Invest just $7.50 a week. In 5 years you'll have Savings Bonds worth $2053 in cash; in 10 years, $4448.

Even if you've never been able to save before, this plan is guaranteed to work for you. So sign up today for Payroll Savings where you work—or invest in Bonds regularly where you bank.

Penny Brower Weds Alver Allen Maloy

Miss Glenda Penny Brower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brower of Pahokee, became the bride of Alver Allen Maloy, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Maloy of Belle Glade, in a double ring ceremony at the Pahokee First Methodist Church Sunday, July 31, at 4 p. m.

The vows were read by the Rev. T. C. O'Steen, pastor, as the couple stood before an altar banked with palms, decorated with white chrysanthemums and gladioli and lighted by candelabra bearing white tapers. Nuptial music, before and during the ceremony, was played by Miss Jill McIlwain, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of embroidered organza over white taffeta with fitted bodice, elbow-length sleeves and ballerina-length bouffant skirt. On her hands were white mitts and her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. A French illusion veil of elbow length was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of white carnations.

As maid of her honor the bride's sister, Miss Sue Brower, wore a gown of yellow silk organza and a circular headpiece of matching flowers. Her bouquet was a nosegay of bronze chrysanthemums.

Charles Parrish of Belle Glade served as best man, Bob Fisher of Pahokee and Jimmy Cowart of Belle Glade were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Brower chose a blue cotton dress with white accessories. Mrs. Maloy, the bridegroom's mother, wore blue linen with matching accessories and a vanda orchid corsage.

At the reception in the social hall of the church the bride's table, covered with white linen and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, was decorated with white hibiscus, gardenias and fern arranged by Mrs. E. A. Jensen. Miss Donna Davis poured at the punch bowl while Miss Linda Lee of Sebring, cousin of the bride, served the cake. Miss Judy Cunningham was in charge of the bride's book.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

Mankind's opportunity to awaken to God-given freedom will be emphasized at all Christian Science churches next Sunday.

The account in Acts (Ch. 16) of the imprisonment and deliverance of Paul and Silas will be related in the Scriptural readings.

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include (227:14):

"Discerning the rights of man, we cannot fail to foresee the doom of all oppression. Slavery is not the legitimate state of man. God made man free. Paul said, 'I was free born.' All men should be free. 'Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.' Love and Truth make free, but evil and error lead into captivity."

The Lesson-Sermon on "Spirit" continues the current series which brings out the nature, essence, and wholeness of God.

Presbyterians At Miami Beach Sep. 2-4

The first in a series of conferences which will culminate in observance of the centennial of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., will be held in Miami Beach, September 2-4.

About 500 Presbyterian men from all five of the state's presbyteries are expected to attend the annual convention at the Deauville Hotel according to Fred B. Rice, Jr., chairman of the conference planning committee.

This year's conference is keyed to the forthcoming centennial observance, with the theme, "The Living Word for Living Men". Later conferences, and training sessions for Presbyterian men will prepare the 800 Florida Presbyterian churches for the 1961 observance, which has as its theme, "Mission to the Nation".

The September conference will draw to Miami Beach three of the church's most noted speakers. Dr. James McDowell Richards, president of Columbia Theological Seminary, will open the session with "The Living Word for Living Men—As He Lives with His Family."

A one-time agnostic, currently renowned as one of the Protestant church's most articulate scholars, is Dr. Manfred George Gutzke, professor of Columbia University. His address, "The Living Word for Living Men, as He Lives with Himself."

Christian Educator Ernest A. Andrews of Richmond, Va., will speak on "The Living Word for Living Men—As He Lives with His Church."

The men's conference will be followed in October by a series of caucuses, featuring the church's most outstanding leaders in sessions directed to members of the Everglades, Florida, St. Johns, Suwannee, and Westminster Synods.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson R. Chastain arrived the first of the week in Philadelphia, Pa., where Mr. Chastain entered a hospital for medical treatment.

$150,000 Carpet Firm Is Announced By Committee Of 100

TAMPA—Plans for a new $150,000 wholesale distribution facility were announced today by T. Paine Kelly, chairman of the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce Committee of 100. The Vol T. Blackhall Co. of Atlanta, one of the largest and oldest carpet distributors in the Southeast, has already started construction of an 11,000 sq. ft. building at 6235 S. Manhattan.

Completion date for the new facility, expected to employ from 12 to 15 persons, has been set for mid-December. Aubrey O. Dicus, a 14-year employee of the firm, has been named manager of the Tampa operation.

Tampa was selected as the site for the branch operation, according to T. F. Randolph, company president, because: (1) It is better located to serve the entire state than any other large city; (2) The growth potential of the immediate and surrounding area is considerable; (3) The "business climate" is most favorable.

"We have always enjoyed a good business in the state of Florida," said Randolph, "and our business has increased there in recent years even more than the average in other areas. After making a careful study last fall, we decided that in order to maintain our position and to continue to grow with the economy of the state we should take the step of establishing a branch without further delay."

J. S. Stephens & Sons of Tampa has been named general contractor. Architect is F. Earl Leggett.

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to $2\frac{1}{4}\%$ for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra $\frac{1}{4}\%$ from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic $\frac{1}{4}\%$ increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest-egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

ance by the Board of Levee 39 and three gated spillways which have completed the encirclement of the 141,000-acre Conservation Area No. 1 in Palm Beach County.

The levee, with its water control structures, also serves as a dividing wall between Conservation Areas Nos. 1 and 2, and its acceptance Friday from the Corps also heralds the approach to completion sometime next year of Conservation Area No. 2, mainly located in Broward County.

Completion of such huge water storage areas in the forms of vast marshlands are of vital importance to the coastal urban areas in terms of greater flood control and water conservation, Earl pointed out. It meant also, he added, that improved wildlife and irrigation facilities will become available as added benefits.

Conservation Area No. 1 is managed by the U. S. Wildlife Service, and Conservation Area No. 2 is under the wildlife direction of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, the FCD Executive Director said.

A third Conservation Area in Broward and Dade Counties is also being developed by the FCD.

Dr. Lester Hatton is serving as director of music for the congregation at the Pahokee Church during the Sunday evening worship services.

Milk Price War In Tampa; Gallon 59c

TAMPA—There has been a milk price war going on in Tampa that recently has caused the price to sag to 59 cents a gallon at some chain stores.

Following a drop two months ago to 79 cents a gallon, the price slashing took a further downturn later when one chain store cut again to 69 cents. Original price of the commodity was 92 cents per gallon.

Milk distributors, caught tightest between producer and retailer, have called a public hearing before the State Milk Commission Aug. 3-5 to seek relief through controls at the retail level.

But many chain store heads feel that controls should be an "all or nothing" proposition. At present, only the producer has a minimum price of 61 cents per gallon for the raw milk.

Farm Workers In Seasonal Slump

TALLAHASSEE — Florida non-farm employment continued its seasonal drop in June, falling 21,600 from May to 1,259,200 in June.

State Industrial Commission Chairman James T. Vocolle said seasonal reductions in manufacturing, trade, and service were mainly responsible for the June decline.

Vocolle reported a negligible increase in construction employment for June compared to the seasonal construction rise normally expected at this time of year.

June construction was off from June a year ago, but all other major industry groups were above last year, Vocolle said.

However, the margin of over-the-year growth in employment continued to shrink, falling from 3.6 per cent in May to 3 per cent in June.

Total unemployment jumped 27 per cent from 73,100 in May to 93,000 in June. Approximately two-thirds of the June unemployed were job seeking students and graduates, new entrants into the labor market.

Seasonal layoffs in citrus canning plants, wholesale packing houses, apparel firms, and service establishments continued to contribute to the unemployment total in June.

Trade dropped the most of any industry group, going down 10,200 from a total of 359,400 in May to 349,200 in June. Service was down 5,300 from 198,800 to 193,500; and manufacturing, down 4,100 from 206,800 to 202,700.

Mrs. Ada Culberson, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. W. O. Stamps, has returned from a visit of several days with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Culberson, and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Curlee, and families in West Palm Beach.

A management institute will also be conducted during the exposition that will highlight an intensive discussion of the problems confronting restaurants and hotels in Florida.

That pledge, in its simplest terms, is another way of saying, "Count me in. You're my country and I love you and need you. Your problems are my problems, and I'm with you all the way."

Your country's biggest single problem is the perpetual responsibility for keeping the peace its people want. You can help with this problem by remembering this:

Peace costs money. Money for military and industrial strength. Money for science and education. And money saved by individuals — by you — to help keep the economy strong. Bonds provide this money.
